

PLSA North London Group Meeting

Tuesday 3 March at 5pm (registration from 4.30pm)

Money and Pensions Service Strategy 2020

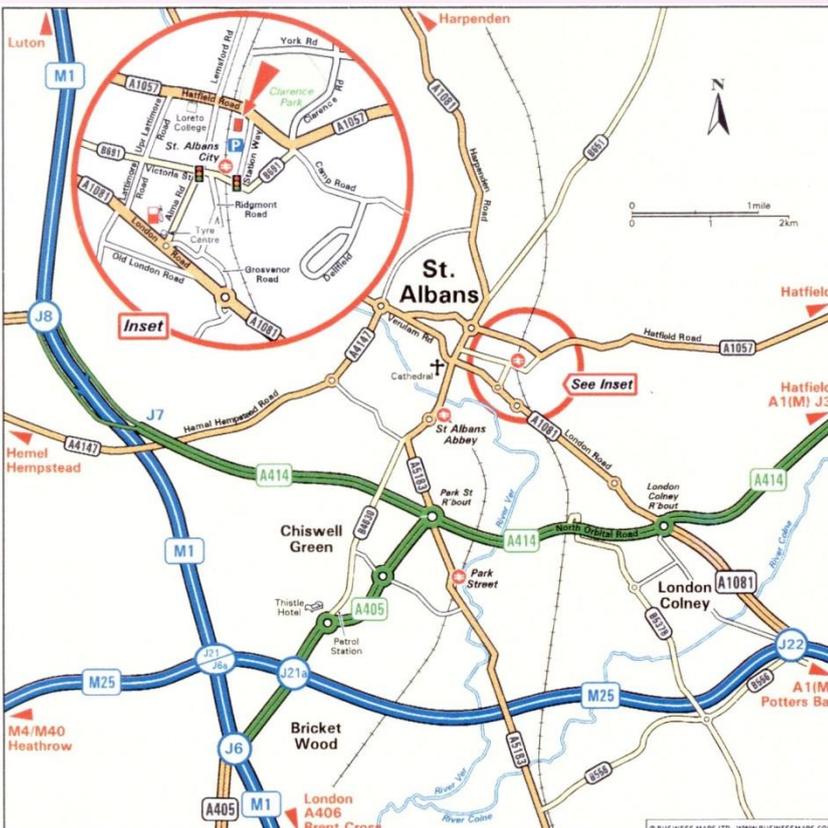

Summary:

Jackie Spencer will take us through the Money and Pensions Service strategy to improve financial wellbeing in the UK.

Jackie Spencer is the Senior Policy & Proposition Manager for pension strategy at the Money and Pensions Service - the organisation created from the three existing providers of government-sponsored financial guidance; the Money Advice Service, The Pensions Advisory Service and Pension Wise. Jackie's main responsibilities include developing the pension and retirement consumer strategies which, amongst other supportive resources include a retirement options tool, retirement adviser directory and the printed guide, Your Pension: it's time to choose. Jackie also worked closely with the team at HM Treasury to build the Pension Wise service.

Prior to joining the Money Advice Service, Jackie worked for Age Concern Ealing and managed a pre-retirement education project. Jackie has also been a financial planner for a major Canadian bank; worked in India leading a micro-credit project; and taught marketing to college students in Kenya. She is a Certified Financial Planner and holds a Masters degree in international finance.
